Letter From The President

Welcome Flag Footballer & Fans to our 6th annual Kate Clinton Classic! New Teams, more teams... how nice!

The tournament in Ptown is different from Key West. The shopkeepers are very friendly, Teams are more cordial with one another, the atmosphere is softer, friendlier. I love this event, because you see the best in our athletes on and off the field. So please, enjoy yourselves, the other teams, the games, the social events and truly experience the excitement of it all.

I thank Kate Clinton, who has once again loaned her name to the event. Kate also made a fun video for the IWFFA and gave us a wonderful radio interview during our May "On the air with IWFFA" radio show. You should listen to it. It is a reminder that women in this world are not equal and that we have work to do. The IWFFA uses this sport as a tool to teach leadership skills to all females around the world (we go to India next year). We should use those skills to better compete with the men in business and politics to have female influence in world affairs to make a better world and one day peace. Some of you play flag football for the joy of athleticism and that is all well. To the women who understand the deeper meaning of it all, I appeal to you now and invite you to take the next step and join the IWFFA in taking women's and girls flag football to the next level. As a matter of fact, I encourage you.

I will be the tournament director, so if you have any questions or concerns, come see me. My cell phone number is (305) 587 - 0592. We will post scores and updates each day on our website: <http://iwffa.com/ptown2011.html>

This year's Social Director is Shawna Southern, once player and official. Last year Shawna won all the contests we offered, and this year she will run them. Tamalam Walker who is also one of our IWFFA committee members and Loose woman is our Assistant Director.

Kippy Pyzik, our very first Ms. IWFFA/Ptown 2010 - 2011 will be dethroned on Saturday night. Her trip around the world, spreading good will and love to all the different communities in so many countries didn't happen (actually, we never planned it that way). However, she honors us with her presence and will be the one to crown the NEW 2011 - 2012 Ms. IWFFA / Ptown. Will it be you? (it's not what you think and this contest was meant for our flag football players so I urge as many of your players from your team to enter the Saturday night contest.). Every team needs to be represented in the contest.

This year, we spread the social events to various businesses in Ptown. Our Registration Party Friday night will be hosted by the Governor Bradford. Saturday night will be at the Piedbar and our Awards immediately following the championship game will be at the Harbor Lounge. Please come to all these venues for respect to these Event Sponsors, other teams and for you to have fun. One party each night so everyone will know where the action is. I will be very grateful to you all for your attendance.

This year, we have created a list of places to go to in order to win, yet another big contest called: "Kate Clinton's Flag Football Map"; where all the stores and businesses who have advertised, or donated prizes, are included. It is your job to visit these places and accrue points. Go to your social director for more details..

We have a new crew of officials officiating this year: "Al's Crew." All the way from South Yarmouth! Welcome: Al Faria, Mike Alden, Brian Raneo, Ed Deleonardis, Raffae Collins, John Lang, and one female official - Donna Piermattei. Thank you for the one female official and may our flag football players give you peace, no protests, clean games and an easy officiating experience during the weekend. Oh and good luck.

Read Field / Team information in this program. As a matter of fact, read the entire tournament program. There is lot's of important stuff in these pages for each athlete to know. Look at all the 2012 IWFFA list of Tournaments and begin to talk to your team about competing. We ask you to tell other teams in your league as well that they are invited. Notice after 20 fantastic years, our Kelly McGillis Classic in Key West will be hosted in Cocoa Beach, FL, for it's 21st. The Kelly McGillis Classic now rotates to other cities each year ( just like the Olympics... kind of ). Now don't just consider our American tournaments, we offer many international tournaments that are easy to travel to and sponsorships are available. Take advantage of our International competitions . That is what makes the IWFFA so unique as we are a unity of female flag football players from around the world! And the first ever, women's flag football association.

May you make great flag football plays, I hope you get it on a photo, but if you d, keep it in your heart.

Let the games begin!

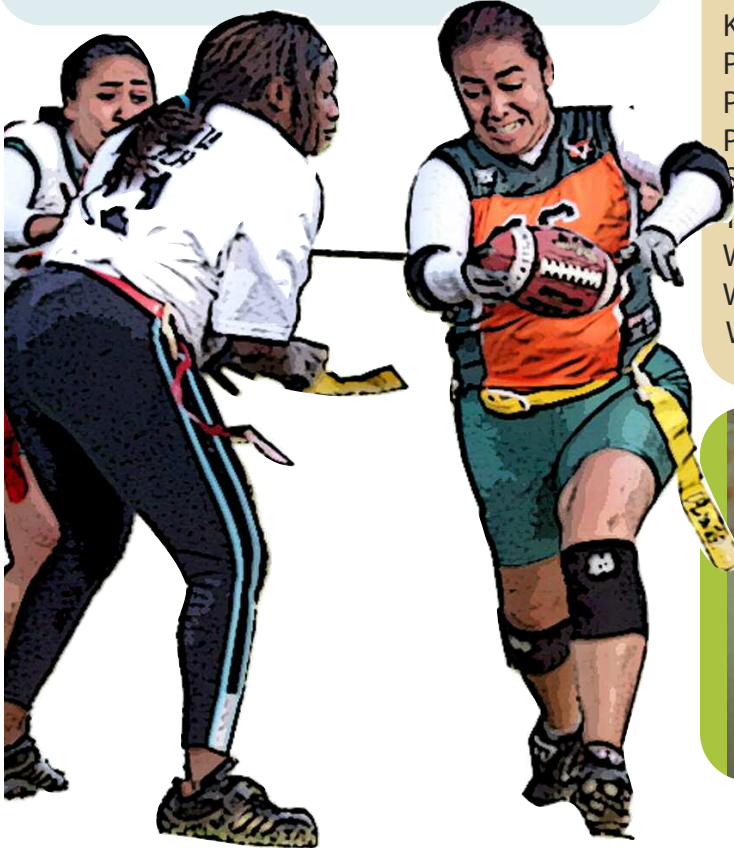

Diane Beruldsen - President IWFFA
