Chain Gang - Each team is responsible to hold the chains when scheduled.

3 persons are needed. See the tournament schedule to know when your team is responsible to hold the chains.

One Official Per Team for the Tournament

Each team is to provide one official to officiate during the tournament. We welcome as many players to officiate and encourage women to take this opportunity to get on the field and learn to officiate if you never did before.

Team Photo - Before your first game, make sure we have taken your Team Photo !

Action Shots / Social Photos - If you take any tournament photos , please email us so we can post on website

Score Cards - Very Important

Each team captain or coach should pick up their score card before each game, then fill in and return to Diane
The score cards reports games scores, Most valuable player for offense and defense for your team and the team you played against. The score cards will rate the officials, select all stars. You may write any comments about the tournament on these score cards

All Star Select Sheets

Each team will receive an all star sheet at the field on Saturday. Please fill in any elite athletes you feel deserved to receive all star nomination. Give Diane your all star select picks first thing on Sunday morning.
Before the championship game, we will have a meeting with each team representative to agree on who is picked for the all star offensive and defensive teams.

Half Time Games

At the tournament registration - tell the tournament organizers which contests you wish to compete in.

After each game on Saturday will be Half Time Games (in this order below):

- 1) Furthest Football Throw
- 2) Longest Kick
- 3) Tug A War
- 4) Longest Snap
- 5) Most Push - Ups
- 6) longest punt

Prizes to winners - we have IWFFA tee shirts.

Special Loose Women Rule - Remember, if the Loose Women's team needs to borrow players from other teams during the tournament in order to have 8 players - it is allowed (see IWFFA rules)
