Letter From The Tournament Director

Are you ready for some football? It is once again the time of year when the leaves start to fade, there is a chill in the air, the geese begin to head south, and women come to Ptown to play flag football!

Hello and welcome to the 7th Annual Kate Clinton Classic here in lovely Provincetown, MA. I am Shawna J. Southern, and I am the director of the tournament. In my other life, I am a health and physical education teacher in the Providence Public Schools District, and I love to play golf. I also enjoy helping to promote women's sports.

One of the goals this year during the tournament is to have fun! With teams coming to Ptown from various locations everyone has the opportunity to meet and make new friends! Everyone has at least one thing in common....flag football.

There are a lot of people who help make this tournament what it is each year. I want to thank them beginning with Diane Beruldsen, founder of the IWFFA. Diane is presently out of the country promoting women's flag football abroad. She is helping to meet the mission of the IWFFA which is to offer the education and the opportunity for women everywhere to play flag football.

Kate Clinton has once again loaned us her name for the tournament. Kate sent me a nice note about being the director of the tournament and in closing said, "Have a ball, a football!"

She is forever a comedian. Although Kate is not available this weekend, I look forward to next year and hopefully having her be a part of the program. Thank you Kate for your support in promoting women's flag football, the IWFFA uses flag football as a tool to help teach leadership skills to all women around the world.

Other people include Rori Baldari; our graphics artist, Conwell Lumber; our field sponsor, Governor Bradford; Meet and Greet sponsor, Boat Slip; the hotel and Saturday night sponsor, and the Harbor Lounge; Awards sponsor.

Please, please check out those who have helped to sponsor this tournament. Without them we would not be playing this weekend. Our sponsors help us, this weekend is the time to help them. Please don't take this lightly. Look through the program and visit them. Let them know you are with the Kate Clinton Classic! You will put a smile on their faces!

A big thank you to all of the people in Provincetown: Radu Luca from the Provincetown Tourism Office and Brandon Motta from the Provincetown Recreation Department. I know I have most likely forgotten people. So to those I have not mentioned, I want you to also know how important you have been. Without you this would not be possible, so thank you from the bottom of my heart!

-Shawna Southern, Tournament Director Provincetown 2012
